Move your feet. Heal Earth. Feed the Hungry.

Shepherd's Corner Ecology Center brings people together to reconnect, repair, and restore. Proceeds will benefit land-based experiences in spirituality, education, art, and restoration that heal our relationship with Earth and one another. Through environmental education, food pantry gardens, and forest and wetland restoration, we take action to repair harm and renew community. With the support of folks like you, Shepherd's Corner has donated 53,831 pounds of fresh, naturally grown produce over the last 18 years. Your steps in this 5K help restore the land, nourish neighbors, and ensure this healing work continues for generations..

We love dogs but because of our livestock, we don't permit pets on the property.

About Shepherd's Corner

Shepherd's Corner is an ecological ministry supported by the Dominican Sisters of Peace, offering a wide array of agricultural, educational, and spiritual opportunities. This sanctuary is surrounded by suburban sprawl.

In the midst of diminishing farmland and wilderness, Shepherd's Corner seeks to provide a place in which people of all backgrounds can reconnect with the natural environment, themselves, one another, and the Creator who made them all.

This all-terrain race will offer a course that surveys the diverse landscape of Shepherd's Corner Ecology Center. Run alongside natural gardens, across meadow trails, by a wetland, and through wooded paths.
